

Washburn University School of Law
2019 Barbados Study Abroad Program
Costs and Estimated Student Budget with Notes

Tuition & Fees	Washburn Law Students	Non-Washburn Law Students
Application fee ¹	75.00	200.00
Tuition for 6 credits (6 weeks) ²	5400.00	5400.00
Health insurance ³	13.00	13.00
SUBTOTAL	5488.00	5613.00
WU International Programs Scholarship
Estimated minimum for timely applications ⁴ :	(-500.00+)	Ask your university
Lodging, Airfare & Books
Housing for May 16 – June 28 ⁵	1600.00	1600.00
Round-trip airfare ⁶	900.00	900.00
Books and supplies ⁷	150.00	150.00
SUBTOTAL	2650.00	2650.00
Personal Expenses
Meals ⁸	1800.00	1800.00
Local transportation ⁹	600.00	600.00
Miscellaneous personal expenses ¹⁰	600.00	600.00
SUBTOTAL	3000.00	3000.00
TOTAL U.S.$	10,588.00	11,263.00

¹ The application fee will post to your university account once you begin the OIP Program Application.

² Includes courses, island safari, and two field trips to local legal institutions.

³ The first 30 days of travel health insurance are included in tuition. The additional $13 for insurance covers the students for the 13 program days beyond the first thirty at a rate of $1/day.

⁴ Washburn University offers study abroad scholarships for Washburn Law J.D. students studying abroad. Although we cannot guarantee a scholarship or a certain amount for any given year or student, those who timely apply (usually by approximately March 1 of each year), typically receive awards of $500 or more.

⁵ Single-occupant, private room in a dormitory apartment with six total bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a central living area and kitchen.

⁶ Tends to vary by airline, route, and purchase date from approximately $600 to $1,000. Good planning can save money.

⁷ Course materials often are in the form of electronic materials that can be made available at low cost.

⁸ Students wishing to economize can save money by making breakfast and lunch at home and enjoying meals out a few times a week. Orientation will include introduction to a low-cost grocery in the area.

⁹ Bus transportation is inexpensive, frequent, and reliable, but taxi service is important for longer distances, nights, and weekends.

¹⁰ Examples: clothing, laundry, telephone, pharmacy, and other incidentals.