WASHBURN LAWYER

Washburn University School of Law Alumni Magazine | Spring 2016 VOLUME 53, ISSUE 1

Table of Contents

Features

4 Opportunities | Western Kansas
Meet three Washburn Law alumni who picked up and headed west, making beautiful – and bountiful – lives for themselves.

8 Alumni Spotlight | Denise Reimann
Denise Reimann, BS '75 and JD '00, followed an unconventional path – law school at 44, a second career at 48.

10 Honorary Degree Recipient | John Hamilton
Renowned attorney John Hamilton, '65, receives an honorary doctor of law at the May commencement.

12

12 Q & A | Nola Tedesco Foulston
Former Sedgwick County District Attorney, Nola Tedesco Foulston, '76, speaks frankly about her role as a district attorney, a prosecutor, a wife, and a mother.

14 Alumni Spotlight | Joe Morris
The Honorable Joe Morris, BA '43 and LL.B. '47, reminisces over a more than 70-year legal career, something he knew from the beginning he wanted to pursue.

18

16 Student Spotlight | Deborah Barnes Jones
From the British Diplomatic Service to Washburn Law, Deborah Barnes Jones, JD candidate '18, brings a world of experience to her first year in law school.

18 Clinic Spotlight | Veterans Clinic
Joe Pilgrim, BA '13 and JD '16, a veteran himself, took on the role of student coordinator to help spearhead the Veterans Legal Assistance Clinic.

20 Alumni Spotlight | Chris Tymeson
Chris Tymeson, '98, parlays his sportsman spirit into a career as chief legal counsel for the Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks and Tourism.

In Every Issue

2 Dean's Letter

3 Alumni Association Chair's Letter

22 Alumni Events

24 News Briefs

25 Class Actions

28 In Memoriam