

JANUARY 1-13 STUDY ABROAD IN BARBADOS!

Climate Justice
2-Credits with
Prof. Craig Martin
& Ms. Alana
Lancaster

Affordable tuition; scholarships &
financial aid

Caribbean food & culture; tours

Learn with Caribbean & U.S. students & faculty

APPLICATIONS

- Apply by Oct. 31
- Next info session TBA

Residence Hall

Private Rooms in campus apartments

Local Beach (Batts Rock)

University of the West Indies Campus

Schedule

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1 Arrive	2 Orientation	3 Class AM	4 Class AM	5 Class AM	6 Island Safari
7 Free day	8 Class AM	9 Class AM	10 Class AM	11 Class AM	12 Exam	13 Depart

Estimated Student Budget

Financial Aid is available

Tuition & Fees	Washburn Law Students in Barbados
Application fee	75.00
Tuition for 2 credits	1756.00
Excursion fee	300.00
SUBTOTAL	2131.00
WU International Programs Scholarship
Est. minimum for applications received by October 31:	(-500.00)
Lodging, Airfare & Books
Housing for 12 nights	420.00
Round-trip airfare (estimated)	1000.00
Books and supplies	150.00
SUBTOTAL	1570.00
Personal Expenses
Meals	420.00
Local transportation	300.00
SUBTOTAL	720.00
TOTAL U.S.$	3921.00

Applications

- ❖ Log in to WU Bods Abroad with your Washburn ID and search for the Barbados program at: https://washburn.studioabroad.com/_portal/.
- ❖ You will also fill out a separate application for the International Programs scholarship: https://washburn.studioabroad.com/_portal/scholarship-opportunities
- ❖ The application deadline for this program (including the separate International Programs scholarship application) has been extended to October 31, 2023.
- ❖ The university provides some general financial aid information for study abroad students here: https://washburn.studioabroad.com/_portal/financial-aid
- ❖ We will have another meeting to go over the specifics of using financial aid for law students studying abroad.

Questions?

The website is being overhauled. Please instead reach out to Prof. Kowalska: antonina.kowalska@washburn.edu.