

WASHBURN LAWYER

Washburn University School of Law Alumni Magazine | 2021-22

Table of Contents

8

Features

- 4 Faculty Spotlight | Washburn Law Faculty
Supported by the International and Comparative Law Center, Washburn Law faculty actively travel, teach, and publish around the globe which bolsters Washburn's reputation both at home and throughout the world.
- 8 Musical Magistrate | Jerry Seales
A native of St. George's, Grenada, Jerry Seales, '88, retired as chief magistrate judge in Grenada in 2018 after handing down sentences with the intention of improving the community.
- 9 Staying Active from Afar | John Shoemaker
John Shoemaker, '04, has worked in Singapore since 2015, but still stays connected and continues to be the life of the party from thousands of miles away.
- 10 School Spotlight | Jessup Program
The Jessup Program at Washburn Law helps students develop their advocacy skills through competition.
- 11 Namibia | Matti Asino
Matti Asino returns to his home country of Namibia where he represents the Namibian government in all forms of litigation.
- 12 Global Travel | Laura Ice
From her Wichita, Kansas, office, Laura Ice, '84, has helped Textron Financial Corporation expand globally as it provides financing opportunities for those purchasing aircraft and other Textron products.
- 14 Graduate Education | John Westerhaus, Marvin Tador, Jessica Dorsey
Studying at Washburn Law has inspired graduates to continue studying law in a foreign country after their time at Washburn.
- 16 West Indies | Elizabeth "Kinsella" Brunetti and Deisy "Pam" Saenz
Elizabeth "Kinsella" Brunetti, '21, and Deisy "Pam" Saenz, '21, worked on an international law research project in 2020 to assist with litigation in St. Lucia to protect indigenous rights and preserve indigenous cultural heritage.

18 Honorary Consul | Paul Maricle

A passion for Germany led Paul Maricle, BA '76, JD '79, to study abroad and work in the country in which he later earned the title honorary consul for the Federal Republic of Germany.

20 Land Down Under | Lori Callahan

Lori Callahan, BBA '80, JD '83, recently retired after a long career with Allianz, the oldest and largest insurance company in the world.

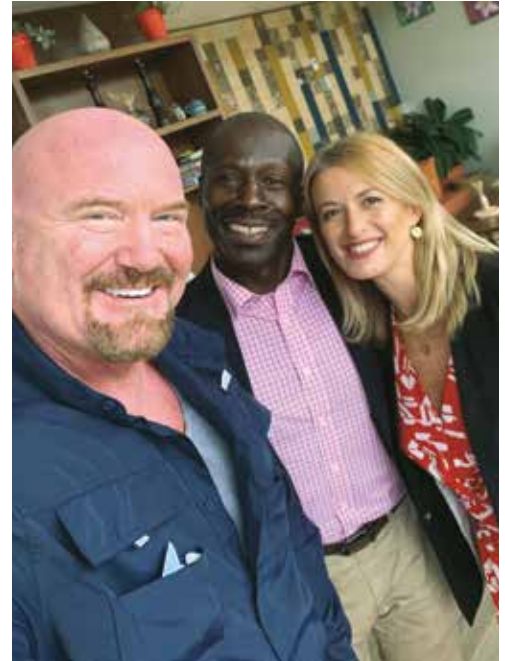

22 Persistence Leads to Justice | Kurt Kerns

Kurt Kerns, '91, is just one of 26 American lawyers authorized to appear before the International War Crime Tribunal at The Hague.

24 Q&A | Jim Slattery

Relationships have been the key to success in providing both legal and political successes for Jim Slattery, BS '70, JD '74.

22

In Every Issue

2 Dean's Letter

3 Alumni Association
Chair's Letter

28 Faculty Updates

30 Class Actions

36 In Memoriam