

WASHBURN LAWYER

Washburn University School of Law Alumni Magazine | Winter 2023

Table of Contents

Features

4 Alumni Spotlight | Erika Jurado-Graham

Creating influence allows Erika Jurado-Graham, '07, to become one of the most sought-after immigration attorneys. Her experience provides a unique perspective for clients who may otherwise be taken advantage of, helping an underserved community.

6 Fostering Collaboration | Mike Kuckelman

Bringing respect for differing viewpoints fosters good relations, both in and out of the courtroom. Former chair of the Kansas Republican Party, Mike Kuckelman, '90, promotes collaboration as he focuses on justice.

8 Recognizing Achievements | Law Alumni Awards

Six awards were presented during the Washburn University School of Law Alumni Awards. Friends and family gathered to honor the award recipients on Oct. 15, 2022.

12 Social Justice | Mark Dupree

Wyandotte County District Attorney, Mark Dupree, '07, advocates for justice and created the Wyandotte County Conviction Integrity Unit, one of only 85 similar units in the United States.

15 Community Impact | David Fenley

Passion for Washburn leads to a lifelong commitment to giving back. David Fenley, '79, continues to invest in not only his community of Kansas City, Missouri, but also in the future of Washburn University and its students.

16

16 Going Big | Michael C. Manning

Michael C. Manning, '77, is not afraid to pursue justice, even when the stakes are high. Long-time School of Law dean and professor, James Concannon, shares Manning's story of career-defining advocacy against cruel treatment in one of Arizona's most notorious prisons.

18 Student Spotlight | Law Clinic

Students gain knowledge ahead of graduation by practicing in the Law Clinic. The invaluable experience prepares students for their future law careers.

20 Honor Roll | Why I Give

Thank you to each of the donors who annually make a gift to Washburn Law. Your generosity makes a difference in the lives of our students.

In Every Issue

2 Dean's Letter

3 Alumni Association
Chair's Letter

26 News Briefs

28 Faculty Updates

29 Class Actions

32 In Memoriam